

Pastor to People

He had come to ask for his daughter's hand in marriage. The prospective father-in-law asked, "Young man, can you support a family?" The nervous and surprised groom-to-be answered "Well, no, sir. I was just planning to support your daughter. The rest of you will have to fend for yourselves!"

I remember "that day" when I asked Sarah's dad for his permission to marry his daughter. He had some questions too, but I hope my answers were better (I don't remember, I was nervous too). I am sure that your father-in-law may have given you some brief but profound advice that you've also been followed through the years.

Here are some "good words" collected over the years from successful Dads.

- 1) Raise them so you can like them.
- 2) Parental unity at all costs.
- 3) The purpose of discipline is self-discipline.
- 4) The motive of discipline is love: "I love you too much to let you grow up to be a jerk."
- 5) What you permit you teach: No tantrums, pouting, or whining.
- 6) Be consistent.
- 7) Never publicly humiliate a child.
- 8) Only tell them once.

Happy Father's Day.
Bro. Lance

RT. 226 KID ZONE KORNER

Can you believe summertime is here? I do have one question... What happened to spring? It is going to be one hot summer but it is also going to be a fun and exciting one. VBS is only a few weeks away. I am looking forward to a week of nonstop action with a western twist. I think the kids will have a ball too. Our pre-registration went off without a hitch... a little western humor there. We had about 13 kids pre-register and had a great time of fellowship. Kudos to all of our teams that worked it. The décor looked awesome (don't the wagons add the perfect touch...I love it), the registration team did an excellent job as well as the kitchen crew and rec team. Mrs. Tonya and I couldn't have asked for any better. Everyone did their part and worked together. So thank you for all who helped in some way. We couldn't do it without you all.

We still need some items and some help for VBS. Check in the foyer, and hallway by the office for ways you can help or see Tonya Clark, Sarah Cypert or Francis Ellison. We have a place for you. So let's saddle up and hit the trail for a great adventure. June 14th-18th.

On a personal side note. Thank you to everyone for helping make Kate and Jess' graduation so very special. It was very special for all of us and I know the girls will remember it forever. You all have treated our family so graciously and we feel so blessed to be a part of such a warm and loving church family. We love you and are so glad that you could be a part of this special event in our lives. Thank you to those who helped with the food, photos, music etc. Everything was perfect.

Just a few quick reminders to our kids:

- If you want to go to any of the camps this summer at Clara Springs see Ms. Corre Evans for the details.
- RA's and GA's begins June 2nd
- Children's choir on Sunday evenings at 5:30 we are working on this year's VBS songs. Bring your friends.
- Don't forget you earn tokens for attendance, bringing friends, memory verses, knowing the books of the Bible, participation, and random acts of kindness.

I was looking over James chapter 1 today. I really needed it. Wow... what great passage. I challenge you to read it too.

In His Love,

Sarah Cypert,
Kid Zone Koordinator
